Context

The Lion Works School is an Independent special school. We are part of an ethical and progressive organisation that believes it can achieve real change for children, young people and their families.

The Lion Works School is situated within the BCP local authority. We offer an academic and vocational specialist learning provision across KS3, KS4 and Post 16 aiming to reduce barriers to enable successful learning experiences and outcomes. There are a variety of routes a student can take, which include GCSEs, BTECs and other accredited qualifications whilst building confidence, improving wellbeing, enabling self-regulation and increasing attendance. Our school is full of life and has a wealth of resources to spark interest and ignite that passion to achieve, equipping our students for everyday life and the opportunities that await them.

We adhere to the values of ARC:

Ambition

Resilience

Community

The Lion Works School operates within the SPELL framework. SPELL is The National Autistic Society's framework for understanding and responding to the needs of children and adults on the autism spectrum. It focuses on five principles that have been identified as vital elements of best practice in autism and emphasises ways to change the environment and our approaches to meet the specific needs of each person.

SPELL stands for Structure, Positive approaches and expectations, Empathy, Low arousal, Links:

Structure	Structure makes the world a more predictable, accessible and safer place. We can support people on the autism spectrum in creating structured environments using visual information.
Positive (approaches and expectations)	We must seek to establish and reinforce self-confidence and self-esteem by building on natural strengths, interest and abilities.
Empathy	We must try to see the world from the standpoint of the autistic child or adult, knowing what it is that motivates or interests them but importantly what may also frighten, preoccupy or otherwise distress them.
Low arousal	Approaches and the environment need to be calm and ordered in such a way so as to reduce anxiety and aid concentration.
Links	Autistic people, their parents or advocates should be seen as partners. Open links and communication will reduce the risk of misunderstanding, confusion or the adoption of fragmented, piecemeal approaches.

Aims

The Prevent duty forms part of our wider safeguarding obligations. The teaching of Fundamental British Values and SMSC are an integral part of our curriculum and our culture of personal development for our student community. Staff are trained to know what radicalisation is, the difference between what to look out for and what to do if they are concerned. Staff are frequently signposted to resources that will support them in this work and therefore equip our students with the knowledge and education to enable their personal development and protect them from harm. The school's policies and procedures in place will robustly challenge any extremist views and seek at all times to prevent our students being drawn into terrorism. The school also uses the websites <https://goingtoofar.lgfl.org.uk/> and <https://www.educateagainsthate.com/> as part of the PSHE curriculum delivery.

This policy aims to:

- Set out the arrangements for keeping all our children safe from harm in line with our safeguarding statutory responsibilities
- Set out how the school has due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism, known as the Prevent duty.

Legislation

This policy has regard to the following guidance and legislation:

- Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015
- Prevent Duty Guidance \(2023\)

Definitions

Radicalisation is when someone starts to believe or support extreme views, and in some cases, then participates in terrorist groups or acts. It can be motivated by a range of factors, including ideologies, religious beliefs, political beliefs and prejudices against particular groups of people. People may be radicalised in many different ways, and over different time frames from as little as a few days or hours, or it may take several years.

Extremism is the vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. Extreme right-wing terrorism is defined as the active or vocal support of ideologies that advocate discrimination or violence against minority groups.

Terrorism is an action or threat designed to influence the government or frighten and intimidate the public. Its purpose is to advance a political, religious or ideological cause. It's important to remember that not all extremist groups, whether Islamist, extreme right-wing or other, will commit terrorist or violent acts. However, some groups do pose particular threats, both online and offline.

It is important for all our staff to recognise that the reasons people are vulnerable to being drawn into radicalisation are complex, unique and can be closely connected to emotions. Radicalisation feeds off these emotions and it is important to understand the full context of the situation. The difference between extremism and terrorism is that not all extremist groups will commit terrorist or violent acts. Instead, extremism takes the form of vocal or active opposition to our fundamental values. However, Terrorism starts with radicalisation. The objective of terrorists is to incite someone to support terrorism or become a terrorist themselves. Acts of terrorism are more than an attack, it includes all of the below the surface and hidden activity and included making plans and/or supporting those acts that may lead to violence or does lead to violence.

Who is vulnerable to radicalisation?

A child or young person may be considered vulnerable to radicalisation if they:

- Feel a sense of social isolation or expressions of an 'us and them'
- Exhibit social isolation – losing interest in activities they used to enjoy, distancing themselves from friends and social groups
- Have low self-esteem
- Are experiencing a personal crisis
- Are individuals with feelings of unmet aspirations or a sense of injustice
- Are being overly secretive about their online viewing
- Are becoming more argumentative or domineering in their viewpoints, being quick to condemn those who disagree and ignoring views that contradict their own
- Are downloading or promoting extremist content
- May be searching for answers to questions about identity, faith and belonging
- Have a pre-existing conviction that their religion or culture is under threat
- Have abnormal routines, travel patterns or aspirations
- Have Special Educational Needs – social interaction, difficulties emphasising with others and being able to understand the consequences of their actions, and being aware of the motivations of others
- Have a need for adventure or excitement
- Have a history of criminal behaviour.

What might be the signs of radicalisation?

Radicalisation can happen to individuals of any age, religion, ethnicity, social class, or educational background. There are many signs and risk factors that may indicate that someone is at risk of becoming radicalised. These include:

- being influenced or controlled by a group
- an obsessive or angry desire for change or 'something to be done'
- spending an increasing amount of time online and sharing extreme views on social media
- a personal crisis and/or mental health issues

- a need for identity, meaning and belonging
- looking to blame others
- a desire for status, need to dominate.

For further information on the signs of radicalisation, visit:

What are the signs of radicalisation? on the ACT Early website.

What about sharing information?

It is important to share information, but there is also a need to know what information can be shared about a person who is, or may be vulnerable to radicalisation, so that you abide by the law. The following information will help with this:

Sharing information under General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The GDPR and Data Protection Act (2018) does not prohibit the collection and sharing of personal information for the purposes of keeping children and vulnerable people safe.

Gaining consent when sharing information

Where possible, gaining consent is encouraged. However, you do not need consent from the person to share their personal information if it puts that person's safety at risk.

When you do not need to get consent

There may be some circumstances where it is not appropriate to seek consent, either because the person cannot give consent, it is not reasonable to obtain consent, or because to gain consent would put the person's safety or well-being at risk.

Sharing personal information with another organisation

Under the Prevent duty you can share personal information with other practitioners. More details on information sharing can be found below:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/safeguarding-practitioners-information-sharing-advice>

What does 'Notice, Check, Share' mean?

Notice - Remember to:

- look out for changes in behaviour that cause you concern and discuss them with the DSL or DDSLs
- ask yourself whether this person might be vulnerable to the risk of radicalisation and why you think that
- keep up to date with extremist sign and symbols through training and the DSL

You should always call 999 where a person poses an immediate risk of harm to themselves or others.

Check - Remember to:

- handle safeguarding issues with duty and care in line with the school's Safeguarding Policy
- try to understand the bigger picture by gaining more context around your concern/s
- check your concern discreetly with a colleague to see if they can offer any advice

Share - Remember to:

- share information with your Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) or DDSLs
- only share information that is relevant to the purpose and in line with GDPR
- share information with the DSL/relevant authorities early to reduce risk

What is the Channel programme?

An individual who has been identified as being at risk of radicalisation, but has not yet engaged in terrorist activity, may be offered support from the Channel programme. This is completely voluntary and fully confidential.

The Channel panel consists of professionals from many services including the police, healthcare providers, and social workers. The panel meets regularly to closely monitor the risk of the individual and organise tailored support. This may include:

- specially trained intervention providers
- counselling and mental health support
- substance misuse services
- education or careers support
- housing support

These interventions help to reduce the impact of vulnerability factors on the individual, increase resilience, and redirect away from extreme or terrorist beliefs. Cases are only closed when there are no further concerns. Reviews take place after 6 and 12 months, and the individual may re-enter Channel if necessary.

What are the national and local risks of radicalisation?

Current known ideologies are:

- Islamist Extremism
- Extreme Right Wing
- Self-initiated and online (lone wolves)
- MUU – mixed, unable and unclear

In the Southwest it is Extreme Right Wing ideologies and in particular a group called: Patriotic Alternative that are prevalent.

Some Extremist groups are banned in the UK. These are:

- National Action
- Sonnenkrieg Division
- Feuerkrieg Division

Roles and Responsibilities

The Senior Leadership Team (which includes members of the Safeguarding team) will:

- establish or use existing mechanisms for understanding the risk of radicalisation
- ensure staff understand the risk and build the ability to respond and deal with it
- communicate and promote the importance of the duty; and
- ensure staff implement the duty effectively
- work in partnership with others across multi-disciplinary teams
- share information in an open, transparent, lawful and timely way

All members of the Safeguarding Team will complete the Government's Home Office training on Prevent: <https://www.support-people-vulnerable-to-radicalisation.service.gov.uk/> whilst they are in role and they complete refresher courses annually.

The DSL is the named Prevent Lead and they are trained to provide advice and support to our staff on how to protect students against the risk of radicalisation. The DSL/DDSL attends Local Safeguarding Forums and shares regular updates and information shared by the Police, the local PREVENT board, and the LA.

All staff at induction receive training on the government's anti-radicalisation strategy; Prevent, through the Educare training programme. This is also completed annually. They are also asked to read and refer back to this policy to support them to identify children at risk of being drawn into terrorism and how to challenge extremist ideas.

Procedures for reporting a concern

If there is concern about possible extremism, staff must inform the DSL/DDSL in the usual way. The DSL/DDSL will consider the level of risk and decide on the appropriate action to take. This may include making a referral to the Police/CSC or Channel, the government's programme for identifying and supporting individuals at risk of being drawn into terrorism.

Making a referral

Anyone can make a Prevent referral. If you are concerned that an individual is showing signs of radicalisation, it is important to share this information. Being referred to Prevent is not a punishment, but a means of providing support. Prevent referrals will not appear on the individual's criminal record.

All reports will be handled sensitively; your identity will not be shared with the individual without your permission.

The following information is taken from the website of Dorset Police: <https://www.dorset.police.uk/>.

- If a crime is taking place, or there is an immediate threat to life, dial 999.
- To make a referral, call the National Police Prevent advice line on 0800 011 3764, or use the Dorset Police online referral form.
- For updates on a report, or for general advice before making a referral, call 01202 229 319 or email dorsetprevent@dorset.police.uk.
- Online material promoting terrorism or extremism can be reported online on the GOV.UK website.
- Dorset Police are now adopting the national PREVENT referral form. All Prevent referrals should be sent to PreventReferrals@Dorset.pnn.police.uk

In addition, The Department for Education also has a dedicated telephone helpline: 020 7340 7264, which school staff and governors can call to raise concerns about extremism with respect to a student. You can also email: counter.extremism@education.gov.uk (NB. do not for use in emergency situations).

In an emergency, you must always call 999 or the confidential anti-terrorist hotline on 0800 789 321 if you:

- Think someone is in immediate danger
- Think someone may be planning to travel to join an extremist group
- See or hear something that may be terrorist-related or that concerns you relating to public safety.

Appendix 1: Prevent Risk Assessment

The Lion Works School Prevent duty risk assessment

The aim of the Prevent strategy is to reduce the threat to the UK from terrorism by stopping people being drawn into terrorism. We are required to take a risk-based approach to the Prevent duty, under paragraph 14 of the Home Office's statutory guidance. This document demonstrates our awareness of the specific risks of extremism and radicalisation in our school and our area.

HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	OWNER	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
The values and ethos of the school are unsuitable for promoting resilience against extremist ideologies and promoting British values	Students, staff, governors and the school community	At TLWS promoting resilience against extremist ideologies and promoting British values is seen as part of child protection, safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, which is everyone's responsibility. Everyone who comes into contact, with children, their families and carers, has a role to play in this. Therefore, the school values clearly set out our commitment to Fundamental British values: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• FBVs are displayed on the home page of our website</li> <li>• FBVs are displayed on posters in our school</li> <li>• FBVs are embedded in our curriculum and our policies</li> <li>• FBV include a commitment to tolerance, diversity and mutual respect</li> </ul>	HT	Low	Safeguarding is defined as:  Protecting children from maltreatment. Dealing with an incident	Students and staff	A lead person has been identified to deal with terrorist related issues. These should be reported to the DSL / Prevent Lead. If there is a dangerous situation, which requires emergency action there is an Emergency Management and Business Continuity Plan in place which prioritises student welfare, clearly outlines staff and their responsibilities and actions which should be taken in relation to bomb threats, lockdown, evacuation before, during and after any incident.	HT, Governor, DSL	Low	Review the Emergency Management and Business Continuity Plan annually.

Training and Capability

School staff are unaware of their responsibilities under the Prevent duty, and the need to promote British values	Student and staff	All staff have read our child protection policy and at least part 1 of Keeping Children Safe in Education 2022. All staff have Prevent training as part of their safeguarding and duty of care through Educare, TES develop online training courses. Staff members are aware that they can go to Assistant Headteacher, David McLaughlin, who is the DSL and Prevent lead, for advice, support, and to escalate concerns. The DSL / Prevent Lead is a member of the local Dorset and Poole DSL forum, which keeps its members up to date with safeguarding issues relevant to the area. ### Working in Partnership

HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	OWNER	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
Staff do not feel comfortable or capable working with external agencies and sharing concerns about extremism externally	Students and staff	We work and communicate with local safeguarding partners and other relevant agencies regarding concerns about extremism. The DSL / Prevent lead is aware of the process to contact other agencies and expedite concerns about extremism. Records of referrals are kept, and referrals are followed up appropriately using safeguard my school https://www.safeguardmyschool.co.uk to ensure accurate, secure record keeping and information sharing between all members of SLT, the governing body and recorded communication and agreed actions with external agencies.			If you suspect a child to be suffering or likely to suffer significant harm, which includes being radicalised, then a child protection referral should be made in line with the Multi-Agency Safeguarding Procedures. Dorset Police are now adopting the national PREVENT referral form. All Prevent referrals should be sent to PreventReferrals@Dorset.pnn.police.uk or call the National Police Prevent advice line on 0800 011 3764, or use the Dorset Police online referral form. There are no volunteers working within the school. Staff understand that they all have a responsibility for safeguarding. There is a staff code of conduct which they must adhere to in relation to professional standards. Our organisation's procedure for raising a concern and the whistleblowing policy, and the protections that staff are entitled to if they report a colleague for misconduct, are shared with the staff team so that everyone can confidently monitor and report on inappropriate speech and behaviour of a member of staff at every level. Ineffective information sharing and partnerships	Students and staff	Staff at the TLWS know that the Deputy Head Teacher, Kelly Twitchen is the DSL / PREVENT lead and understand that it is their duty to communicate any Prevent concerns to him or to another member of SLT in her absence. There are information sharing protocols in place with police and other relevant agencies (see below). Local PREVENT structures To make a referral, call the National Police Prevent advice line on 0800 011 3764, or use the Dorset Police online referral form. For updates on a report, or for general advice before making a referral, call 01202 229 319 or email dorsetprevent@dorset.police.uk.	All staff	Low	If a crime is taking place, or there is an immediate threat to life, dial 999. Online material promoting terrorism or extremism can be reported online on the GOV.UK website. Channel program The Channel panel consists of professionals from many services including the police, healthcare providers, and social workers. ### Speakers and Events

HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	PERSON RESPONSIBLE	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
Pupils are exposed to extremist ideologies by visiting speakers	Students and staff	The materials that visiting speakers deliver are discussed and approved prior to their visit. Visitors are never left alone with students. Staff will stop any visiting speaker and ask them to leave if they are concerned about inappropriate content in their presentation/speech. The inappropriate content in their presentation/speech will be addressed with the pupils at an appropriate time, as soon as is practicable, following any incident of a visiting speaker sharing extremist views.	All staff	Low	Radios should be used to gain support from the SLT team if asking a visiting speaker to leave the school due to inappropriate content in their presentation/speech.

School Curriculum and Culture

HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	PERSON RESPONSIBLE	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
The curriculum teaches damaging material or fails to challenge extremist ideologies and promote British values	Students and staff	Opportunities to promote British values are clearly identified within the curriculum. Use of PSHE or RSE lessons for sensitive and supportive discussions on radical issues and extreme ideologies. School assemblies are to be used proactively to reinforce the beliefs and values of the school. They acknowledge excellence in community as one of our three pillars in the ARC.	All staff	Low	Review our current practices for promoting British values and consider where we could do more to embed these values into our curriculum.
A culture of inequality or abuse is allowed to grow, enabling extremist ideology and hate to develop	Students, Staff, and parents	At The Lion Works School (TLWS), we are committed to creating a strong culture of safeguarding in school and fulfilling all of our statutory duties. This includes ensuring that adults who work with children do so in a way that is in accordance with the ethos and policies set out by the school and KCSiE, including the Staff Code of Conduct. Within the Low-level concerns policy there is the detail and processes for staff regarding low-level concerns they may have. Our behaviour policy clearly sets out that hateful behaviour is not tolerated. Staff know how to respond to witnessing harassment and abusive behaviour. Pupils are encouraged to challenge harassment or abusive behaviour among their peers.	All staff	Low	It may be possible that a member of staff acts in a way that does not cause risk or harm to children, but is however inappropriate. A member of staff who has a concern about another member of staff should inform senior leaders/DSLs about their concern using a Low-Level Record of Concern Form.

School Curriculum and Culture

HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	PERSON RESPONSIBLE	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
British values are not promoted outside of the classroom	Students and staff	At TLWS we aim to educate our students for life beyond our school walls within their local communities and promote FBV through some of the following activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students participate in democracy through school council and student leadership elections</li> <li>• Assemblies promoting diversity, human rights, and respect.</li> <li>• Our assemblies also recognise and respect the individual strengths and efforts of our student body.</li> <li>• Celebrations from multiple religions and cultures are celebrated around the school</li> </ul>	All staff and parents / carers.	Low	We expect that parents and carers will help us promote the values of Democracy, Rule of Law, Respect and Tolerance, Individual Liberty.
Tensions and grievances	Students and staff	There is a good awareness of any potential tensions and grievances within the student body. This awareness is built upon positive relationships, staff competence and observation. Students at TLWS school have the opportunity to develop trusting relationships with several key adults. All students are met outside the school door on arrival each day by members of the staff team and welcomed into the school reception by other staff members. All students have tutor time, twice daily, where they are encouraged to talk about their feelings and share their news. At all times throughout the school day, including breaks and lunches, students are supervised. There are excellent lines of communication between home and school, especially with form tutors who communicate with parents every week.	All staff	Low

IT and Internet Safety

HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	PERSON RESPONSIBLE	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
Pupils use the school network or school hardware to access extremist material	students	Students are educated in line with our Curriculum Policy in year 1 and 2 of KS3 about online safety and in KS3 year 3 - Understanding and Preventing Extremism. The PSHE programme helps our students have an understanding and respect for British Values and makes reference to the risks of online extremist material. Pupils are encouraged to report any material they come across online which makes them worried or uncomfortable. There is direct supervision of the use of laptops and there are appropriate IT safety and monitoring systems, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The school IT network has appropriate filters to block sites deemed inappropriate or unsafe</li> <li>● The pupils do not have school email accounts</li> </ul>	HT		Review our online safety policy annually. Resources:            Department for Education – e-safety guidelines  https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/251455/advice_on_child_internet_safety.pdf            Vodafone – Digital parenting  http://www.vodafone.com/content/digital-parenting.html            The South West Grid for Learning (SWGfL)  http://swgfl.org.uk/
Pupils access extremist material on their own devices or on social media, or are specifically targeted for online radicalisation	students	The PSHE curriculum includes teaching pupils how to stay safe online. Parents are provided with support on how to help their children access the internet safely and spot the signs of online radicalisation. The website internetmatters.org have many resources to protect children from radicalisation and extremism. These areas of learning are also taught through our assembly programme in line with our safeguarding duties outlined in KCSiE (2024) and within the context of the law and legal requirements, taking care not to condone or encourage illegal political activity, such as violent action against people, criminal damage to property, hate crime, terrorism etc.	DSL / Prevent Lead		Share online safety information with parents to help them support their children through the school newsletter and social media Internet Matters, Safer Internet and Childnet. HAZARD	WHO IS AT RISK?	ACTIONS IN PLACE	PERSON RESPONSIBLE	RISK LEVEL	ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS
Parents not feeling informed or being confident about talking to their child about terrorism		TLWS will encourage parents to feel confident and informed to talk about terrorism with their child and will share resources to help parents equip their child with the skills and know-how to challenge extremism for themselves. This will be implemented by sharing the following resources and other information as it arises in safeguarding updates in our school newsletters. Parents will be empowered to have the conversations with their child on this subject. Examples shown in the column to the right "ADDITIONAL NOTES / NEXT STEPS" Resources:  educateagainsthate.com/parents/what-can-i-do-to-protect-my-child  educateagainsthate.com/parents/why-is-extremism-relevant-to-me  parentzone.org.uk/advice/parent-guides  parentzone.org.uk/article/preventing-violent-extremism-what-parents-can-do  nspcc.org.uk/what-you-can-do  educateagainsthate.com/parents/how-to-talk-to-your-child-about-extremism  bbc.co.uk/news/education-40011787  parentinfo.org/article/preventing-far-right-extremism-a-guide-for-parents	DSL / Prevent Lead		Everyday discussions with your children about current issues can help them develop skills to question extremist ideologies they may encounter. For example, you could try to open discussions with your child about false news stories you have seen online, how we can tell which sources are reliable, the difference between fact and opinion, and common techniques used in persuasion. Extremist groups can have very persuasive narratives that attempt to influence potential new recruits. They often deliberately mix fact and opinion, and appeal to people's emotions. Whenever you come across 'facts' that seem suspicious — in adverts, news articles, or online — work with your child to find out more information. If the claim turns out to be misleading, discuss the possible motives for presenting it in this way.
